DAY 5-Serene Salalah

Serene Salalah | PRIVATE

Salalah, the “garden city” of the south, is a tropical paradise and the hub of Frankincense trade from time immemorial. Begin the day visiting Salalah Grand Mosque (except Friday) standing tall in the center of the city with its exquisite artwork and stained tiles. Stop at the Al Husn Palace - first among three palaces of the Sultan of Oman, listen from your guide about Sultan Qaboos, the visionary ruler of Oman revered as a fatherly figure across the Sultanate. Adjacent to the Palace, we visit the Al Husn Souq where frankincense crystals of Dhofar and typical Dhofari frankincense burners are sold, filling the air with aroma of incense and perfumes. We drive to a tropical garden farm where fruits, vegetable and leafy greens are grown and displayed for sale. Enjoy a refreshing tender coconut drink here and walk through the fertile land nourished by fresh water distributed through a network of canals. We end the tour visiting the Al Balid Museum and the Archaeological site where the remnants of the ancient Al Baleed town are excavated and preserved. (FRI & SAT FROM 1530 HRS). We end the tour by noon and drive back to your hotel.4 Hours - 50 Km - AM Tour
