Day 03 : Shillong- Mawlynnong - Dawki :

After breakfast proceed for a Day trip to Mawlynnong- the cleanest village in Asia. It is situated 90 kms from Shillong and besides the picturesque village, offers many interesting sights such as the living root bridge and another strange natural phenomenon of a boulder balancing on another rock. From there proceed towards Dawki (Indo-Bangladesh Border). Dawki is a small village and its main attraction is the Umngot River that marks the natural separation between the Khasi and the Jaintia Hills. The river can be forded by a suspension bridge that connects India to Bangladesh and facilitates trade between the two nations. The Umngot is the site for a boat race that is held in March-April, but even otherwise, seeing this large emerald-green serpent threading its way through the hills, with fishermen's boats dotting its surface, right into the plains of Bangladesh, is a sight whose majesty echoes long after you leave it. Evening back to Shillong. Overnight in Shillong.

Day 04 : SHILLONG TO Bhalukpong/Tezpur :
